FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 28, 2022

CEREMONIAL INVESTITURE SET FOR JUDGE CRYTZER

United States District Judge Katherine A. Crytzer will receive the ceremonial oath of office in an Investiture Ceremony on Friday, September 30. The ceremony will be held in the ceremonial courtroom of the Howard H. Baker, Jr. U.S. Courthouse at 1:00 p.m. United States Circuit Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit Raymond W. Gruender will administer the oath. Speakers will include Attorney General Jonathan Skrmetti and the Honorable Beth A. Williams of the U.S. Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board. Remarks on behalf of Senators Marsha Blackburn and Bill Hagerty will be received.

Tasha C. Blakney, President of the Tennessee Bar Association, will present Judge Crytzer with a gavel. Knoxville Bar Association President Jason Long will present a commemorative robe, assisted by Judge Crytzer's husband, Joseph R. Oliveri, and her mother, Karen A. Crytzer.

The ceremony will be attended by the Eastern District of Tennessee's eight other district judges, including Chief Judge Travis R. McDonough, Chattanooga, who will preside over the ceremony. In addition, the district's five magistrate judges and four Bankruptcy Court judges will attend.

Following the ceremony, a reception will be held in the first floor rotunda of the Howard H. Baker, Jr. U.S. Courthouse.
