

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT 2024-4

DATE: September 18, 2024

POSITION TITLE: Judicial Law Clerk – Term

LOCATION: Greeneville, TN

SALARY: JSP 11/1 to JSP 13/10 ($72,553 to $134,435)
Starting salary is dependent upon qualifications and experience in accordance with the Judicial Salary Plan.

CLOSING DATE: Open until filled with first preference given to applications received by September 30, 2024.

POSITION OVERVIEW:

The position is for a one-year term and is expected to begin as soon as possible. The position may be extended without further competition. The Judicial Law Clerk researches issues of law, drafts bench briefs and opinions, attends motion hearings and other court proceedings, and acts as advisor, making recommendations based on the law, to the Honorable Cynthia R. Wyrick, United States Magistrate Judge. The caseload in the jurisdiction is heavy, and the types of cases presented, both civil and criminal, are varied. There is daily interaction with Judge Wyrick. Effective interaction with other chambers staff, Clerk's Office staff, and members of the bar is essential to this position.

The law clerk in this position will assist in managing the Magistrate Judge's criminal and civil caseload. This caseload consists of motions and other pretrial matters, which often require quick resolution, as well as other matters which require devoting more extensive time to address. The law clerk will also work with Judge Wyrick to address numerous administrative law cases. The nature of the matters presented to the Magistrate Judge is serious and the caseload is heavy, but the office environment is personable. There is daily interaction with the Judges and other law clerks concerning legal and court-related issues. The law clerk also will be expected to answer phone calls and perform administrative tasks, as needed. The position is full-time, and the successful applicant will be expected to complete 40 hours of work per week, generally between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Applicants must be law school graduates (upon the beginning of the clerkship) with strong academic records who possess excellent research and writing skills. Candidates also must possess strong case management skills and the ability to work independently in a production-oriented, high-volume environment. The ability to orally present complicated legal matters to judges is required, as is proficiency in Microsoft Word. Candidates who possess one or more years of relevant post-graduate or federal clerkship experience are highly preferred. High academic standing (top 25%), law review membership, moot court participation, and/or bar membership is likewise preferred. Publication of a noteworthy article will also be considered.

For appointment at a JSP Grade 11, an applicant must be a law school graduate from a law school of recognized standing and have demonstrated one of the following accomplishments or proficiencies:

- Graduation in the upper third of a law school class;
- Experience on the editorial board of a law review;

- Graduation from law school with an LLM degree; or
- Proficiency in legal studies that, in the opinion of the appointing judge, is the equivalent of one of the above.

For appointments to JSP Grades 12 or 13, an applicant must also be a member of the bar of a state, territorial, or federal court of general jurisdiction and must possess the following year(s) of full-time legal work experience after graduation from law school:

- JSP 12 - one year of legal work experience
- JSP 13 - two years of legal work experience

BENEFITS:

Judicial Law Clerks appointed to “term” appointments (limited to 4 years or less) are subject to Social Security and Medicare deductions and are eligible for some of the same benefits as other federal employees such as:

- Eleven paid federal holidays per calendar year.
- Participation in the Federal Employees Health Benefits (FEHB) Program, the Federal Employees Dental and Vision Insurance Program (FEDVIP), and the Federal Employees Group Life Insurance (FEGLI) Program.
- Supplemental benefits including health and dependent care reimbursement accounts, commuter benefits, and long-term care insurance.

Term Law Clerks are not eligible to participate in the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS) or the Thrift Savings Plan (TSP).

APPLICATION PROCESS:

Submit one document in PDF format via e-mail to Wyrick_Chambers@tned.uscourts.gov that includes the following:

- A cover letter which addresses the qualifications, skills, and experience necessary to perform the job;
- A resume, including a list of professional references;
- One to two writing samples, with each submitted being no more than ten pages in length; and
- A completed AO 78, Application for Federal Judicial Branch Employment.

Incomplete submissions may not be considered.

DISCLOSURES:

- Applicants must be U.S. citizens or eligible to work in the United States.
- Only applicants selected for an interview will be notified. The Court is not authorized to reimburse candidates for travel in connection with an interview or pay for any relocation expenses.
- Employment references may be checked prior to a job offer.
- The successful candidate will undergo a mandatory FBI fingerprint check/background investigation and will be considered a provisional employee pending successful completion of the investigation.
