ORDER

National and local COVID-19 infection and hospitalization rates have improved, and residents of the United States generally enjoy easy access to effective vaccinations and treatment. As a result, the Court rescinds Standing Order 22-04 (Comprehensive Order Regarding Current Court Operations Under the Exigent Circumstances Created by COVID-19) in its entirety. Accordingly, the Court shall return to normal operations and the restrictions imposed by Standing Order 22-04 are hereby lifted.

SO ORDERED.

TRAVIS R. MCDONOUGH
CHIEF UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
