The parties shall file any objections at least fourteen (14) days prior to the final pretrial conference. Unless written objections are made to authenticity and/or admissibility of an exhibit, an objection to the authenticity and/or admissibility of the exhibit is deemed waived unless excused for good cause.
- Furnish opposing parties a list of damages, if damages are claimed.

Failure to fully comply with this section may result in the exclusion of these items from use at trial in that party's case-in-chief.

6. Final Pretrial Conference and Pretrial Filings

- a. Final Pretrial Conference. The Court will conduct a final pretrial conference on _____ (2 weeks before trial), at the Howard H. Baker, Jr. United States Courthouse, Courtroom 3A at _____ a/p.m.
- b. Final Pretrial Order. The parties shall file a proposed final pretrial order five (5) days before the final pretrial conference, _____. The order shall contain the following recitals:

i. Jurisdiction.

Admissions and Stipulations. The parties shall set out in numbered paragraphs each fact that is not in dispute. The parties are reminded that the Court, in an effort to reduce the need for evidence at and length of trial, expects the parties to approach this task in a good faith effort to agree on all relevant facts for which there is no reasonable basis for disagreement.

ii. General Nature of the Claims of the Parties:

- a) Summary of the plaintiff's theory. For each defendant, each plaintiff shall concisely state each legal theory relied upon and the factual allegations the plaintiff expects to prove in support of each. Vague, conclusory, and general claims and allegations are unacceptable. The Court expects plaintiff to know the claims, and plaintiff must be able to state precisely and succinctly the issues to be tried. Each claim must be set out in a separately numbered and labeled paragraph.
- b) Summary of each defendant's theory. For each claim against a defendant, each defendant shall concisely state each legal theory relied upon and the factual allegations the defendant expects to prove in support of each. Vague, conclusory, and general claims and allegations are unacceptable. The Court expects defendant to know the defenses, and defendant must be able to state precisely and succinctly the issues to be tried. Each defense must be set out in a separately numbered and labeled paragraph.

iii. Contested Issues of Law.

iv. Novel or Unusual Questions of Law or Evidence.

- v. Damages. If damages cannot be stipulated, each party must show the method by which damages should be calculated if awarded.

vi. Other Trial Information and Other Matters.

- a) That the pleadings are amended to conform to the pretrial order.
- b) Estimated length of trial (in eight (8) hour days).
- c) Possibility of settlement.
- d) Any miscellaneous matters that may contribute to the just, speedy, and inexpensive disposition of the case.

Forty-five (45) days before the final pretrial conference, _____, plaintiff's counsel shall serve opposing counsel with a proposed pretrial order containing the above items except for the theory of defendant. Within five (5) business days after receipt thereof, opposing counsel shall furnish plaintiff's counsel with defendant's theory and advise of any disagreement as to proposed pretrial order content. The parties shall make good faith efforts to reconcile all differences without the Court's intercession. If the parties cannot agree on a pretrial order, plaintiff's counsel shall notify the undersigned's chambers at least twenty-one (21) days before the final pretrial conference that the parties have been unsuccessful, after a good faith effort, to agree upon a pretrial order.

Failure to file an agreed pretrial order or to notify the undersigned's chambers that one cannot be agreed upon as required herein may be deemed a failure to prosecute the action, and the Court may dismiss the action. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b). c. Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. The parties shall file proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law supported by citations of authority 14 days before the trial. See E.D. Tenn. L.R. 52.1.

d. Filings Required after Final Pretrial Conference. At least seven (7) days before trial, _____, counsel will complete the following actions.

- (1) File a final witness list identifying only the witnesses that will be used at trial. This list shall not identify any witness not appearing on the witness list referenced above.
- (2) File a list of damages. The Court prefers a stipulated list of damages; however, if an agreement cannot be reached, each party must file a list showing the amount of damages and method of determining damages.
- (3) File deposition designations and counter-designations, providing the particular portions of the depositions that will be read at trial.
- (4) File as an exhibit the resumes of any expert witnesses.
- (5) Jointly submit pre-marked exhibits. The exhibits shall be sequentially numbered with plaintiff's exhibits first and defendant's exhibits thereafter. Plaintiff's exhibits will be numbered one through the last exhibit plaintiff expects to introduce and defendant's exhibit numbers will commence with the number immediately following plaintiff's last exhibit.
- (6) File briefs of all contested issues of law.

7. Trial. The Court will conduct the trial in Knoxville, Tennessee, at the Howard H. Baker, Jr. United States Courthouse, Courtroom 3A, before the undersigned beginning on _____, at 9:00 a.m. The expected length of trial is ____ days.

If there are any preliminary matters, counsel shall notify Chambers and be present at 8:30 a.m. to take up any such matters that may require the Court's attention.

Should the scheduled trial date change for any reason, the other dates contained in this order that are not expressly tied to the trial date shall remain as scheduled.

8. Supplemental Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. The parties shall submit supplemental proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law within thirty days after trial. The parties' proposed findings of fact shall be supported with citations to the transcript and the conclusions of law shall be supported with citations of authority.
9. Courtroom Technology Equipment. The evidence presentation system facilitates and expedites hearings and trials. The Court encourages attorneys to familiarize themselves with this technology and to make full use of it. Counsel who intend to use the equipment should notify the courtroom deputy, Mallory Dahl, at least two (2) days prior to a hearing or trial so the equipment is ready for use. The courtroom deputy will be available following the final pretrial conference to assist counsel with the use of the equipment. Counsel may also contact the courtroom deputy to schedule an alternate time to familiarize themselves with the equipment.

The U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee uses the Jury Evidence Recording system (JERS) to capture evidence electronically during a trial. To best facilitate presentation of evidence at trial and use of the JERS, the parties are STRONGLY ENCOURAGED to provide their exhibits to the courtroom deputy no later than seven (7) days before trial. The exhibits shall be the exhibits that were previously marked and numbered by the parties. The exhibits SHALL BE SUBMITTED IN ELECTRONIC FORMAT. It is preferred that the parties provide all electronic evidence files on USB drives, DVDs, or CDs.

Information on JERS, specific requirements, and equipment supplied by the Court is available on the Eastern District of Tennessee website (www.tned.uscourts.gov). Specific questions about court-supplied equipment should be directed to the courtroom deputy.

10. Conclusion. A failure to comply with the provisions of this order may result in the exclusion of witnesses, exhibits, depositions, or damages, as the case may be.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
